

Credits and Acknowledgements

The C.M. Russell Museum would like to acknowledge and give credit to all of those who contributed to and made possible the Russell for Learning – A Watercolor Statement teaching unit.

Unit:

The Russell for Learning – A Watercolor Statement unit was written through a collaboration of the C.M. Russell Museum and Young Audiences, Inc.

Images:

- Charles M. Russell, Blackfoot Country, 1900, watercolor on paper; Gift of JoAnn Renner King in memory of Graham D. Renner, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Charles M. Russell, Four Generations, c. 1889-1890, oil; Partial gift of Carl Weissman and Museum purchase with partial funds from Richard and Vicki L. Hammer, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Charles M. Russell, Medicine Horse, 1912, oil on board; Museum purchase, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Charles M. Russell, Prairie Fire, 1898, oil on board; Museum Purchase, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Charles M. Russell, Indian Camp, 1898, watercolor on paper; Gift of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. McLaughlin, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Charles M. Russell, Return of the Horse Thieves, watercolor on paper; Museum purchase and partial gift of Mrs. Sam Stephenson, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT
- Nancy Dunlop Cawdrey, Field Marshall, dye on silk, 34 x 28 inches
- DG House, Whole of the World, oil, 48 x 36 inches
- Chad Poppleton, Hazards of the Trail, oil, 30 x 48 inches
- Gary Schildt, The Parade, 1997, oil on canvas; Gift of Dr. Daniel R. and Mary Ann R. Fiebrer, C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, MT

Artist Statements:

- Nancy Dunlop Cawdrey
- DG House
- Chap Poppleton
- Gary Schildt

The C.M. Russell Museum would also like to thank our staff here at the museum that has been integral in producing our finished Russell for Learning – A Watercolor Statement unit.

The C.M. Russell Museum would also like to thank all outside contributors who have made our Russell for Learning unit a reality.