

Russell for Learning Teacher Evaluation

Please fill out this evaluation upon completion of the Russell for Learning Unit you have taught. We ask that you be thorough and honest to assist us in creating and providing the best lessons and units available from the C.M. Russell Museum. Once completed, please return this evaluation to the C.M. Russell Museum in the self-addressed envelope provided, Attn: Melissa Werber.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1. The teacher training was sufficient to prepare me to teach the unit.
2. It was easy to implement this unit in my classroom.
3. I was satisfied with the unit.
4. I am likely to continue using this unit.
5. I am likely to recommend this unit to another teacher.
6. I am likely to use another Russell for Learning unit.

7. How often do you use new units/lesson plans? _____

8. Where do you get them? _____

9. What were your initial expectations for this unit? _____

10. Did this unit meet your expectations? _____ Why or why not? _____

11. In your experience, what did you find most valuable/least valuable about this unit? _____

12. How did your students respond to this unit? _____

13. Did this unit change the way you or your students think and feel about Montana, Charlie Russell and/or Native Americans? _____ How? _____

14. Do you feel that this unit makes a connection to the community and inspires a sense of place?
_____ How? _____

15. Do you feel that this unit engaged students and encouraged them to think critically? _____
How? _____

16. List one (1) or more positive experiences you or a student had from this unit: _____

17. How can we change the teacher training to better facilitate your teaching of this unit? _____

18. How can we change this unit to make it more effective? _____

19. What can we add to future units to make them more effective? _____

20. Is there anything you would like to see in future Russell for Learning units? _____

21. Please respond to the following statement: "My understanding has increased as a result of Russell for Learning." _____

Please provide the following information:

School Name: _____

Teacher Name: _____

Number of 7-8 Grade Classes you teach that have participated in this unit: _____

Number of students in each class that have participated in this unit: _____

Russell for Learning Unit taught: _____

Thank you for taking the time to fill out this evaluation. We appreciate your thoughts and feedback. If you share this unit with another teacher, we ask that you provide them with a copy of this evaluation form so they can share their feedback as well.